The King Louis-style bank was built on the site of several shops. The properties were acquired by the National Provincial Bank during 1916-20. The Brighton Gazette had occupied 155a North Street since 1910, when its long-time home at number 150 was converted into the Cinema de Luxe. Published by William James Towner, the paper's full title was the Brighton Gazette, Hove Post and Sussex Telegraph. The Gazette later incorporated the Brighton Herald and published its final edition on 25 June 1981.
