The Unicorn Hotel

Ripon

Pub signs originated in Richard II's 1393 Royal Act: 'whosoever shall brew ale in the town with the intention of selling it must hang up a sign'. They were used instead of lettering, many coming from the Bestiary – a compendium of 'beasts'. It was believed that the Unicorn's horn could detect poison, cleansing drinks. It could be that this inn was named in the early 17th century, in James I's reign (who visited Ripon in 1617), when the mythical horned beast was added to the royal coat of arms.

Food hygiene rating

We have been awarded the maximum food hygiene rating of 5 in our pub.

Sustainable fish

The cod and haddock we serve come from fisheries which have been independently certified to the MSC's standards for well-managed and sustainable fisheries.

Free-range eggs

100% of the eggs we use are free range. All shell eggs are certified with the British Lion quality mark and are RSPCA assured, ensuring the highest standards of animal welfare.
